MICHELLE J. HOWE is the founder and president of Empath Evolution.

Michelle enjoyed many years of success as a Certified Public Accountant (CPA), strategic consultant and business plan coach. In her late 30s, Michelle became passionate about people and personal growth. Her goal was to more fully understand what she was sensing in the world.

In her quest for knowledge, she integrated metaphysical and spiritual concepts. She graduated from the Orin & DaBen Awakening Light Body Program, and became a certified Reiki Master, Integrated Energy Therapist (IET), and a Metatronic Healer.

Today, Michelle steps forward as a powerful channel of high-vibrational, healing energies. She speaks, teaches, and guides others to understand themselves. Her mission is to activate their heart connection with a priority on energetic awareness and emotional empowerment.

Michelle offers private packages, specialized programs, and empowerment workshops to those who are ready to embrace their inner empath, release emotional pain, and eliminate dysfunction in their life.

TESTIMONIALS

"What you are bringing to the general western cultural/ industrial complex society mirrors so much of these other global wisdom traditions. Hope you can do a series for the National Wellness Institute, what a grand idea to keep the energy moving...thanks."

M. Mullen, Certified Wellness Practitioner (CWP), Alaska

"Michelle helped me develop the confidence and trust in myself that I needed to fully embrace my Awakening. Her warmth and compassion help to trigger self healing and her knowledge and experience are invaluable tools. Thank you Michelle for being a 'hand up' though this experience!"

R. Ranke, Spiritual Healer, Medium & Channel, New York

"My very first conversation with Michelle Howe was like going home, finally. It is amazing to speak with someone that can explain me... years and years on my own would not have brought to me what hours with her has. She will forever be one of my teachers."

S. Davis, Realtor & Interior Designer, South Carolina
